

Garry Golden, Adjunct Professor

Garry Golden is a professionally trained Futurist who speaks and consults on issues shaping business and society in the 21st century.

He has led workshops and delivered keynote addresses across a wide range of private and public institutions including: American Association of State Highway Transportation Officials (AASHTO), California Transit Association, Denver Public Library System, Goodyear Tire, Houston Contemporary Arts Museum (CAMH), Kennedy Center Partners in Education, Library Journal Directors Summit, McGraw-Hill Companies, Philadelphia Museum of Art, Public Service Utility of New Hampshire, Oregon Department of Transportation, Reliant Energy, Takata Automotive Systems, Texas Department of Transportation, and Xcel Energy.

Garry received his Masters degree from the University of Houston Futures Studies program (M.S.), and is a past member on the Board of Directors of the Association of Professional Futurists (APF). He lives in Brooklyn, NY with his wife Ann and young son Noah.